

O Jesus, Lord!

Dedicated to the Christian Martyrs

Copyright © Rev. Cathy Ammlung, STS

Tune: Das Neugeborne Kindelein

♩ = 100

1. O Je - sus, Lord, O Je - sus, save! Sav - ior blest, Em - man - u - el!
2. "O Je - sus, Lord, O Je - sus, save!" Your ser - vants shout on storm - y sea.
3. "O Je - sus, Lord, O Je - sus, save!" Your ser - vants sigh by si - lent sea.
4. In lan - guid praise or thought - less use, in cas - ual curse or sin's a - buse;
5. For - give our sins; for - give our foes. Breathe Spir - it life on death - doomed souls.

9

Speak now your Name be now your Name. From Sa - tan's grip, from sin's al - lure,
"Are you a sleep? Do you not care? Do you not hear? Can you not see?
Their cap - tors' threat: "Curse Christ or die!" As swords slashed down, the watch - ing world neg - lect of prayer, for - got - ten love, we soil your Name, to world - lings' scom Speak peace; still storms of hate and strife; shape lips for faith and hearts for love.

17

from fi - nal death, from end - less grave, be God - with - us, Lord Jes - sus, save!
We per - ish here up - on the wave. Though small our faith, Lord Je - sus, save!"
could hear no cry, but saw their lips form words of faith: "O Je - sus, Lord!"
and tram - ple on the grace you gave. Grant faith to cry: "Lord Je - sus, save!"
U - nite us in your Fath - er's life, so all may sing: "O Je - sus, Lord!"